CROCUS

I chanced upon the most delicate Crocus of Spring emerging,
only half-believing
she'd really found the sun,
peering through the fear
she yet was only dreaming that winter's terrible weight might soon be gone...

How carefully she left the Earth!
How cautiously she sought the Sky!
How softly did she turn her face as I knelt by...

May this humble offering inspire
The Extraordinary Being
You already are...

Many Blessings,
